The teaching methods and plans are prepared by the respective faculty who are in charge of the subjects.

Timetable Committee, headed by the Principal and a Senior Faculty Member plans a detailed timetable which efficiently deploys the units of time for academic and co-curricular purposes as for example, theory, practical, ICT, life-skill, and value education thereby ensuring a balance between the different types of engagement a student is expected to participate in.

The log book records the completion of syllabus by the teacher in every day class to keep a timely check and to ensure implementation of the planning done by the department. Along with this, the respective teacher prepares course lectures, class notes and PPT presentations in order to be fully equipped for teaching.

Continuous evaluation is maintained throughout the year by conducting internal tests after completion of every unit to ensure thorough understanding. Transparency and impartiality are maintained in the evaluation process. Valued answer scripts are returned to the students with suggestions to improvise wherever necessary. Depending on our resource potentiality, institutional goals and the concern towards the student community, we impart quality education with excellence.

The Institution ensures the effective consignment of the curriculum through interactive teaching. It is promoted through students' participation in group discussions, quizzes and seminars. Special lectures delivered by eminent scholars and trainers on topics related to the curriculum further intensify students' learning experience. The college is well equipped with smart class rooms and other ICT facilities which are extensively availed by teachers for their teaching to make the lectures of the curriculum attractive to students.

The decision regarding the dates of conducting the examinations is printed in the calendar. It is planned at the end of the previous academic year by the Principal after a meeting with the Heads of Department.

The Institution strictly adheres to the Academic Calendar to conduct Continuous Internal Evaluation. The Academic Calendar can also be accessed in the college website and hence all the students are informed well in advance of schedule of the Continuous Assessments.

The components of continuous assessment are Assignments, Tests, Seminars and Attendance which comprise of 25 Marks. The Internal tests are conducted in three phases. Students are evaluated on the basis of their performance and the best two out of three assessments are taken for their internal assessment and announced to the students.

The second and third tests are in the form of Centralized test as Terminal Examination and Model Examination. The dates for the Terminal Examination and Model Examinations are printed in the Academic Calendar and are also informed to the students on a timely basis.

The question papers for the internal examinations are prepared in sets of four and one question paper is selected by the Principal two days prior to the examination confidentially and printed with the help of a copier machine to ensure competence and avoidance of malpractices. Question papers are maintained securely in the examination room with restricted access.

The seating plan of the various halls is sent to all departments for the knowledge of students and also displayed in the notice board for further reference. 180 degree seating arrangements in the examination halls with alternate columns is the ingenious reform for conducting exams.

The questions papers are arranged by the invigilators of the examinations halls and the answer sheets are handed over to the concerned subject faculty in charge of evaluation.

The answer papers are valued within the stipulated time schedule and the result analysis is submitted to the exam committee. The performance of students are entered in report cards and sent to parents for their perusal. The marks are entered in the online University portal and hard copy of the same is submitted to the University of Madras.

Response: 36:1

2.3 Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Response:

Experiential learning:

The college plans the teaching, learning and evaluation schedule through an academic calendar prepared in the beginning of the academic year. The academic calendar of the college is prepared in accordance with the schedule of activities, events and teaching plan. Workload and subject allotment are prepared by head of the department under the guidance of principal. Regular evaluation of students is a part of teaching programme. Interactive and collaborative approach is used to enhance the learning activity.

Internet access in the library promotes the habit of self-learning among the students. The faculty members foster learning environment by teaching through visual aids – smart boards, case studies and conducting quiz on theory topics. Seminars, guest lectures, workshops, field trips and Industrial visits are arranged to enhance the experiential learning of the students.

The inter collegiate conferences and seminars are organized where the students present papers on advanced topics to enrich their learning experience. Visits to industries and banks enhance the students' involvement in learning process.

Participative learning:

The College gives utmost importance to holistic development of students where learning beyond classroom is emphasized through co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. In order to pursue the activity in their area of interest students participation in various clubs and Forums which are ISTD, Knowledge Forum

Karuna club, Yuva club, Enviro Cell, EDP cell, Consumer club, NSS, YRC, RRC organize many student centric activities. Students are encouraged to participate in intercollegiate literary and cultural competitions. Women Empowerment cell organizes SHG Bazaar where the students are sensitized to render all possible help. Students of EDP Cell are encouraged to put up stalls in ED Bazaar to hone their skills in entrepreneurship, gain practical experience and to earn profit.

Problem Solving Methodologies:

Problem solving methodologies are initiated where students learn by working on problems to enhance critical thinking, foster creativity amongst the students. It enables them to develop conceptual ideas to tackle the problems and issues. Case study is an effective tool in understanding real world problems and learning the ways to solve the problems. Project and Surveys help the students to develop their skills like selection of topics related to their subject of interest. Participation in Group discussions, quiz competitions and mock interviews will enhance the problem solving methodology of the students.

2.3.2 Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process.

Response:

The usage of ICT enabled tools by teachers have enhanced the effective delivery of curriculum. There are seven ICT enabled classrooms in addition to two LCD projectors installed across the two main buildings in our campus. The campus is fully Wi-Fi enabled. The teachers can plan for using the ICT classes in a systematic manner. ICT tools have enabled the teaching learning process more interesting with the usage of diagram, charts and pictures. The content is also sent to the students who were not able to attend the classes. Feedback about the knowledge group of the students is also tested and ICT enabled tools play an important role in using sophisticated techniques like bar diagrams, YouTube video etc.

If the teacher is equipped with technology, the student will also be equipped with technology. It paves the way for newer methods of teaching and prepare teachers to apply modern methods of teaching. ICT is playing an important role in student evaluation. ICT helps teacher to communicate properly with their students. Hence ICT bridges the gap between teacher and students. ICT helps the teacher to pass information to students within a short period of time. ICT helps the teacher in designing the educational environment. ICT enabled technology helps us to record, store process, retrieve, and transfer and receive information. By using smart class room technology and interacting white boards, information can be illustrated with the help of videos, maps, graphs, flowcharts and animations. It will make learning more attractive, interesting and easy to understand. It will enhance the ability of students to understand and retain the topic for a longer period of time.

Teachers can also show practical solutions from the web. Students can learn inside the classroom with online resources. ICT technology instils a dynamic information sharing approach and there is no need of paper, pen, pencil and others, thus stepping into Go-Green concepts. It will save a lot of time for teachers and students that can be used for another interactive activity.

Response:

GSS Jain College for Women considers community service as the integral part of the system with varied community services among the students. The college extends its motto as 'Service to Mankind is service to God'. Following the same our various extension units like NCC, NSS, SSL, YRC, RRC organized Outreach programmes and extension activities based on social welfare and personality development as follows.

- Health Awareness Camps and Programmes
- 7 Day Camp & Service in rural areas
- Swatch Bharat Campaign
- Pamphlet Distribution on Rain Water Harvesting & Save Water
- Voters Day Awareness Rally
- Plastic Awareness Rally
- Field Visit – Orphanages & Home for the Destitute

Health Awareness Camps and Programmes like Medical checkups, Breast cancer awareness, Dental Hygiene, First Aid Programmes, Eye camp, Mental Stress Counseling, benefitted the students to be aware of their personal and public health and hygiene -with the proper guidance of Physicians. Workshops and Seminars of International and National Days like AIDS day, Breat Cancer awareness day, equipped them with generalized knowledge on health, wealth and prosperity.

Socio economic surveys were conducted through camps in villages in and around Nallur to sensitize the students to be aware of the rural needs. The students become conscious of the prevailing community related problems. They also brought the cognizance of Self employment opportunity for youth and women during the camps.

The existing Global Warming Alert is brought through sapling plantation and seminars on deforestation, plastic ban, and terrace gardening. Gearing up with these programmes made them to realize their role in society to save mother Earth.

The students Visit to various NGO's conducting medical camps , teaching kids on hygiene and good and bad touch thereby developing their service mind and firstaid tactics. They help the women to empower themselves by being independent economically and also help the senior citizens to feel secure and safe. They were also motivated to donate essential needs for everyday living for the elders and children by raising funds among themselves. More than 500 student volunteers take up their role to serve and understand the community enthusiastically.

Thus Outreach Extension Activities have a greater impact on students to acquire social and civic responsibilities. Our college thereby aims on best social and economic transformation of the community by imparting human values and dignity among youngsters. They will be enhanced with adaptability to a holistic development and leadership skills to compete in the society. As per our motto "Education through Excellence" we are not only inculcating academic education but very keen in moulding the students with collective responsibility of empowering the underprivileged by being more self-reliant and fostering themselves with self-introspection attaining courage and confidence.
